But the primary reason Kat couldn't—or didn't—answer was that she no longer considered herself a thief. Kat was more of a return artist, a repossession specialist. A highly uncommon criminal. After all, the statue she'd swiped in Rio rightfully belonged to a woman whose grandparents had died in Auschwitz.

Heist Society - Wikipedia

Immediately after finishing Heist Society (book #1), I got started on Uncommon Criminals. I wasn't sure what to expect from this novel as the Heist Society series is made up of standalone stories instead of one continuous plot. Kat has been busy since she and her team robbed the Henley for Arturo Taccone with little jobs all over the world.
